SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

As regrettable as it was, we were right last week in predicting that the eastern section of Nevada County would be without one iota of advertising in the county's booth at the state fair. There was an interesting, if somewhat drab, display of minerals, a few statistics, a map, which may have been of interest to some few and if our memory serves us correctly a few other items. But there was nothing of evidence concerning Truckee or this area. Our neighboring county of Placer had a good display, advertising not alone its resourses in the valleys and foot hills, but giving winter sports and other valuable recreational areas of the county a "break." Here in Truckee we must learn, it appears, to be contented with little outside help, but we were under the impression that a fair display was paid for by the entire county and not alone the western portion.

It may be a valuable bit of advertising to the Greyhound system, but in naming one of its big busses "The City of Truckee" this region also shares in the publicity which will result and it will not be out of place for us to turn out 100 per cent next Friday for the dedication.

FASHION NOTE—The color trend of millinery for men in Truckee just now is decidedly red. To suit the moods of the masculine wearer, the hat is made with a slightly limp air but at a moment's notice it can gain character by peaking the crown to a decided degree and with a coquettish slant to the brim over one eye and then again it can be changed to a flat round top with a turned up brim that gives the wearer, no matter what his age, a sophomorish appearance. The chapeaux have a definite duty, they are supposed to act as signals from one human to another to convey the idea that they are without horns, therefore not to be riddled with bullets and taken home as trophies of the hunt. The wary deer may also concider the riotuos splash of color as a danger signal to their well being.

MERLE HARRIS WEDS SACRAMENTO GIRL AT HOMEWOOD RITES

At a simple ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Harris, at Homewood Sunday afternoon, Miss Marian Swasey of Sacramento became the bride of Merle Harris of the Lake Tahoe district.

SPORTLAND POOL HALL IS LEASED BY SALINAS MEN

The Sportland Poolroom, recently operated by Clay Greenman, has been leased to C. L. Van Noy and Bert Weeden, new arrivals from Salinas, according to Van Noy today.

The new partners are both married, Weeden having two children, a boy in grammar school and another son in the high school. They plan to make Truckee their permanent home. The Weedens have rented a house on the hill and Mr. and Mrs. Van Noy will take an apartment.

Greenman, according to present plans, will return to New York, his former home, following a vacation trip through the northwest.

MANY HUNTERS IN THIS REGION AS DEER SEASON OPEN

More hunters are in the mountains surrounding Truckee than ever before, in the opinion of local forest rangers, who are keeping a close watch on the fire hazard existing at this time.

For the past several days red-hatted riflemen have been converging upon Truckee, making this headquarters while they scour the hills for one of the thousands of deer reported in this area.

Up until 9 o'clock this morning no deer had been brought in, but it was reported that in Euer Valley several kills were made, Frank Euer reported that in Euer Valley several hunters found good luck. Reports that Andy Roquette bagged the first in this region could not be verified.

On Duty Here

State Patrolman George H. Hammill of the Nevada County squad is working in this district during the absence of Patrolman Charles McKeen, now on his vacation.

NEW ROAD PLAN MEETS APPROVAL OF STATE HEAD

Project Proposed By Lions To Be Given Attention Of Division

MAY REMOVE WALKS

Signatures Of Land Owners For Removal Of Old Walks Are Secured

Assurance that steps will be taken within the next year to eliminate the present unsightly and dangerous old wooden walk paralleling the state highway in the east section of Truckee and possibly widening the now narrow thoroughfare was seen in a letter from C. H. Whitmore, district engineer of the division of highways, in reply to a letter from the Truckee Lions Club asking investigation of the proposed project.

The Lions Club's safety committee some time ago included this proposed work as part of the safety campaign being carried on under the leadership of Chairman Frank Gaiennie.

As pointed out by Whitmore, the state two years ago offered to do this work but the signatures of property owners along the street were not available and delay was incurred, Since that time the property owners have all agreed to permit removal of the walk and ask only that a retaining will be erected, the owners of the property to install the new walk.

Whitmore said that while no funds were available at the present to provide for the work of removing the old walk and widening the highway, it was hoped to have the work done within the next year.

Last Rites For Charles Bowers Held In Capital

Uncle Of Local Man Fatally Injured In Mishap At Fair

Funeral services were conducted at the East Lawn Chapel at Sacramento on Tuesday for Charles W. Bowers, 70,uncle of Clarence Bowers of Truckee. Cremation followed the rites.

Bowers was fatally injured when he was tossed from a wagon at the State Fair race track on Sunday where he was driving and exhibiting eight of his giant draft horses. The animals became frightened, bolted and swerved the vehicle that hit a post, hurling the widely known man to the ground where a locked wheel struck him as the wagon went by.

Bowers purchased many of his champion stock in Europe and maintained his stables in Broderick, Yolo County. He was requested to repeat a special performance for Queen Marie of Rumania when she was a spectator as Bowers drove a six horse team decked with a $10,000 gold plated harness at the Pacific International Livestock Show in Portland, Oregon in 1928.

Bowers, a native of Edwardsburg, Michigan is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ava L. Bowers; a son, Colin R; a daughter, Mrs. Geraldine McConnell of Sonora; two brothers, C. E. Bowers of Sacramento father of the local man, S. P. Bowers of Michigan; two sisters also in the eastern state and two granddaughters.

Greyhound Bus Will Be Named City Of Truckee

Ceremony Will Be Held Here Next Friday For Dedication

A dedication ceremony, marking the christening of 'The City of Truckee", newest of the fleet of Pacific Greyhound cruiser type busses, will he held in Truckee Friday, September 24 at 10 o'clock.

Details of the program which will include the formal christening of the coach, are being arranged by a chamber of commerce committee. A "queen" to preside at the dedication will be selected from among the high school girls.

The coach will arrive here next Friday and will have officials of the company aboard.

The lettering on the panel of the door will read "City of Truckee." This name will be permanent and as the bus travels over the various western highways it will result in additional advertising and good will publicity for this region.

In addition to the name appearing on the door, there will be installed in a prominent place on the inside of the bus a six by eight inch bronze plaque, to be furnished at the expense of the company on which will be engraved "The City of Truckee", and some pertinent information as to the historical, scenic and recreational attractions of Truckee.

C. M. Shores, district passenger agent of Sacramento was here yesterday making arrangements for the program. He will return next Friday with the bus accompanied by Commander A. W. Scott of San Francisco, radio commentator.

Mrs. Hazel I. Lewis, Truckee agent for the firm. has arranged with the Chism Ice Cream company of Reno to supply free ice cream to the children attending the affair. She is also decorating her windows and making other plans for the dedication.

While the ceremony is brief, it is expected to attract a large attendance.

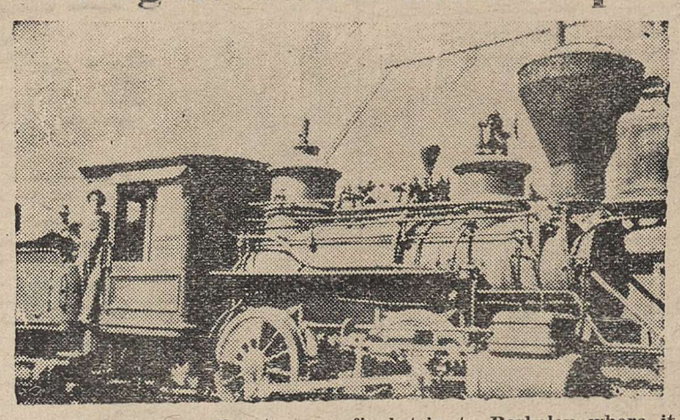
Engine Takes Last Trip



Last week we told you the story, as we heard it, of the famous old engine J. W. Bawker which has served the interests of the Hobart Estate Company for 41 years and which was retired after 65 years of service to take its place among the relics of early days or railroading. Above is a likeness of Old Bawker as it was being loaded aboard a flat car for its final trip to Berkeley where it will be placed in a museum. In the gangway is William F. Cross, veteran railroader, who held the throttle when the locomotive made the initial trip from Truckee to Hobart 41 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Cross are the only members of the Hobart Mills family still on the job who were there when mill was erected. —Bee Photo

Campbell Brothers Hip-Booters Capture Third Place In Reno's Unique Relay

A hip-boot relay race, in event your knowledge of this unique type of sport is limited, it is a difficult bit of athletic prowess, and when the untutored team of four from Truckee, representing Campbell Brother's entry, captured third place against 15 other teams in Reno's bridge celebration last Sunday, it means that they really accomplished something.

It seems that the idea of the contestant is to see who can run the test is to see who can run the deep, with slippery, moss-covered stones instead of a cinder path. The team of five is divided, one man at a given distance from the other and as the relay progresses, the same pair of boots, regardless of fit, are worn by all contestants of each team, the change being necessary at each stop.

The Campbell Brothers team comprised Roy Waters, selected because of his expertness in the river water and Robert Bowers, Hess Cardinal and Robert Warren, because of their swiftness. Frank Giovannini was injured in practice and could not enter as scheduled.

The Reno firemen came in first, in the boot derby, with the Bank Club Crabs a close second and Campbell Brothers running right behind the winning teams.

Following the grueling contest, the local boys were feted by Campbells local Buick dealers, with a feed and divided the $25 purse, well satisfied with their achievement.

Body Of Aged Transient Is Found On Road

Identification Made From Name In Clothing Of Man

Deputy Coroner Ben Tonini said yesterday that the body of a man found between Soda Springs and the Fox Farm had been identified as Mike Cuskovich, about 70, a transient.

The body was in a decomposed condition, the man evidentally having died three weeks or a month before the body was discovered by John Pesce, a wood chopper.

Pesce said he saw the man lying on the ground a week before, but thought he was sleeping and paid no attention. The next week he was in the location and seeing the body in the same position notified authorities.

Identification was established through a name found in the clothing.

Tonini said the man had evidentally been camping where he died as the dead embers of a camp fire, a few items of food and other articles were nearby.

BUY WHERE YOU LIVE

A community can be as red-blooded, its cash registers can hum just as lustily, as its citizens want.

But too often the town's barbed-tongued skeptics forget this when they sit back to sigh, "Things aren't so good." Even people in general are prone to forget there's a direct connection between a lack of punch and vim in local prosperity and the fact that they may hustle on cityward to do their buying.

Besides, out-of-town spending is a useless hangover habit from the past. Progressive merchants have brought big city bargains into every community. Both contribute to local prosperity in wages, rent, light, and employment about equally, save for the small amount of income that must go to out-of-town producers.

Your town is what your purchases make it. Buy at home ....then watch it grow.

LIVE—AND LET LIVE!

Into the Valley of death grimly rode over 500 of America's celebrants during the recent Labor Day holidays. Over three-fourths of those whom Death's scythe mowed down met death in automobile accidents.

All ths incredible destruction of human life through traffic mishaps is taking the form of a mighty race between common sense and recklessness. Given time, we believe common sense will win out, but in the meantime what a toll of human life will doubtless be paid!

But it is encouraging to report that vital progress is being made to combat menaces to the public's travel safety. Among the greatest of these hazards are, of course, highway-railroad grade crossings. Of 3,351 projects included in a national program to eliminate accident tragedies at such crossings, 1,783 have recently been completed at a cost of slightly more than $100,000,000. Yet despite the activity of the railroads, and Federal and State governments, 234,000 grade crossings remain.

Traffic experts are gravely disturbed, however, over the prospect that highway-railroad crossings may get much worse before they get better, despite construction improvements. A bill pending before Congress at its next session would arbitrarily limit the length of trains. That this would greatly increase the hazards of grade crossings is believed inevitable, for a greater number of trains would pass any given crossing, since the bill makes mandatory an increased number of trains.

Observing the hundreds of sorrowing homes into which Death struck over the holidays, most people are rightly apt to ask, "Why enact laws to fatten the already rich harvest of traffic victims cut down daily?"

Meanwhile we pray common sense will speed its lagging steps and lay the deathly spectre of carelessness in its tracks! Let's live and let live!

PIRATES UNDER THE SEA

Just as if the rumbling war zones of Spain and China weren't providing the world with a sufficient ase of jitters, mysterious submarines in the Mediterranean have opened pirate warfare. Several Russian and British merchantmen have already been sunk, and others unsuccessfully torpedoed. The U. S. Navy has warned American shipping to operate with watchful eyes in the Mediterranean zone.

One big U. S. line has 18 passenger ships plying that troubled sea, and there are other American export lines whose freighters regularly make the Mediterranean run. But no war has been declared! Every ship in those waters is neutral. So why pirate subs should make torpedo targets of neutral shipping, or what conceivable reasoning lies behind such apparent madness, is something that only nervous war-scared European nations can answer.

It doesn't make sense to us.

Politically Speaking

By Jack Welter
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16,—(UP)—With half a dozen Democratic aspirants already in the field, Gov. Frank F. Merriam remains steadfastly silent concerning his plans for reelection.

Political observers are unanimous in predicting that Governor Merriam will be a candidate, but he obviously doesn't intend to make his announcement, nor even intimate that he intends to run again, until the time is strategically right.

Some political writers have said flatly that he will run again. While this is undoubtedly true, it has absolutely no qualification from Merriam.

The governor was highly amused and still chuckles on being reminded of the maneuver with which a newspaper reporter trapped him into an unwitting announcement he was not ready to release.

It was all very simple. Firing questions on various newsworthy subjects, the reporter suddenly popped a leading question he felt sure Merriam wouldn't answer. It was all so unexpected, however, Merriam unwittingly answered it and the news was out.

But the governor, once burned, now is twice shy. Similiar strategy failed to work when another newsman attempted to obtain from Merriam an indication of his political plans.

"Can you give us some indication of when you'll be ready to announce your candidacy for reelection?" a reporter asked casually during a press conference.

Merriam rolled back in his chair and laughed heartily.

TAHOE REGION NEWS

Tahoe . . . . Ramblings . .

(By SWANEE)

Few persons last week recognized the noted character actor and villian of screendom John Miljan of Hollywood, who was a visitor at Tahoe. In company with other famous screen luminaries (whose names we dare not mention) he gratefully enjoyed a real vacation and rest....incognito!

Constable Harry Johanson has added another new member to his collection of pets, the newcomer being a four year old buck, a former resident of Tall Pines, the Kaiser estate. Harry's colection now numbers 11 huskie dogs, several cats, a pet white buffalo wolf, 'Lobo' and the little buck.

Workmen last week installed four strong steel turnbuckle rods in the roof of the Catholic Chapel near the Tavern, insuring it's safety through the snows of winter for some time to come.

Constable Johanson and Patrolman Gene Walker were also visitors at the Fair on Friday.

Walter Mandeville and Fred Setley motored to San Francisco on Saturday to take a glimpse at the new bridges and the bright lights for a few days.

Miss Phyllis Miller has left Tahoe for Auburn where she will attend the new Placer County Junior College.

Mrs. Olga Mayhew and Corridion Trickey motored to Oakland last week to attend the annual Placer Co. reunion at Mosswood Park.

Mrs. Truman Suddeth, the former Mrs. Muriel Howrigan of Tahoe, accompanied her husband from San Francisco to Los Angeles last week. They will make their home in the southland where Mr. Suddeth is employed as accountant in the Government service.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Atkinson of Piedmont and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gleason of Oakland left Tahoe on Thursday last for a week's fishing trip to Highland Lake.

Tahoe natives will read with regret that the last Southern Pacific train is expected to leave the Tavern Station for the season on Saturday night next, Sept. 18, with a slight possibility of Sunday night witnessing the final run.

PROBATION LICENSES MAY BE ISSUED TO SUSPENDED DRIVERS

SACRAMENTO, SEPT. 16,—(UP)—Probationary licenses may now be issued to persons whose licenses have been suspended for drunken driving, hit and run and reckless driving, if the records show no other conviction for which their licenses might have been suspended, Paul Mason, chief of the Division of Drivers' licenses, announced today.

Under the provision of a bill, signed by Governor Merriam, which became effective August 27, Mason explained, those convicted but one time of any of the three offenses may apply to the Division in Sacramento for a probationary license, which will be good for one year. If at the end of the year the applicant has not had his license suspended for any cause, a regular license can be issued on request.

To Reno—

Eugene Re of Tahoe stopped in Truckee on Tuesday on his way to Reno where Mrs. Re was prepared to under an appendectomy on Wednesday.

PEACE OFFICERS OF PLACER COUNTY IN MEETING AT TAHOE

A comparatively small crowd gathered at Prusso's Inn on Saturday night to attend the Placer County Peace Officers Association "Ladies Night" dinner party. The closing of the California state fair was given as the probable cause of absence for the 30 or more missing custodians of the law and their wives and guests.

Judge J. B. Landis of Auburn favored the group with a short speech which was followed by amusing bear stories and other anecdotes offered by various members.

Guests included Judge and Mrs. J. B. Landis and Assistant District Attorney C. E. Tindall of Auburn; Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. J. B. McCleary and their guests Postmaster Mrs. Alice Scanlon and her assistant Mrs. May Thomas, all of Colfax; Constable Harry Johanson, and Deputy Sheriffs Charlie Swanson, Carl Bechdolt and Fred Kohler, Mrs. Kohler and Mrs. Charlie Swanson, Carl Bechdolt and Fred Kohler, Mrs. Kohler and Mrs. Swanson and Justice of the Peace and Mrs. George R. Bliss of Tahoe City; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cartwright of Signal Mountain ,Boca and Clarence W. Burner and T. F. Doherty, Deputy sheriffs of King's Beach.

The next 'Ladies Night' is scheduled for October 2nd (weather permitting) at Tahoe Inn where Carl Bechdolt Sr. has promised to procure the meat for a buck stew to be prepared by that expert of culinary artists, none other than Sheriff Elmer Gum of Auburn. A large crowd is anticipated.

Thunder and lightening of some intensity, followed by heavy rainfall visited the Tahoe region on Friday night, the electrical display visible for many miles. Many of the few remaining resident tourists in the region were driven back to their homes in town. With Chamber's Lodge closed on Sunday last and the Tavern being prepared for evacuation, other resorts are preparing to follow suit soon....life at Tahoe growing duller and duller with each passing day. White frost and ice on sprinkled lawns and puddles is common each morning, despite the fact that the thermometer climbed to 80 on Monday afternoon. Flowers are dying and fall winds which blow more and more frequently, sound a warning of approaching winter through the tops of the tall pines which is sending caretakers out scurrying for a plentiful supply of winter wood. Trees and brush are donning Autumn colors and old timers are predicting an early winter with heavy snowfall..all of which we frankly hope is a lot of bunk!

To Tahoeites this heralds the coming of winter....and solitude. Southern Pacific buses will continue to run twice daily however, meeting the west bound train at Truckee at 1:10 P. M. and the east bound at 3:00 P. M. until further notice.

Information regarding the leasing of the Tahoe Tavern for the coming seasons will not be available until Oct. 10th, according to information received by this correspondent tonight. Walter Rounsevel, who has successfully managed the Tavern for the past three years, admitted he had placed a bid with the bondholders who evidentally have not as yet rendered a decision in the matter. A second rumor in circulation declares the bid was withdrawn recently. An interested public awaits to learn the future fate of historic Tahoe Tavern.

Patrolman Gene Walker left Tahoe last week for his home in Rocklin, in which locality he will be stationed during the winter months. His departure is greatly regretted at the lake where he added many new friends to the long list of old ones by his impartial adherence to duty during his summer sojourn. The hope is being voiced on all sides that when, in the eyes of the state traffic department, Tahoe becomes important enough to merit a winter patrol (a possibility perhaps not so far distant) Mr. Walker will be nominated for the position.

12 GOLFERS MEET IN ANNUAL EVENT ON TAHOE COURSE

Tahoe City, Sept. 16—The annual golf tournament sponsored by the Lake Tahoe Sierra Association was held Sunday last on the Tavern golf course, only a round dozen men turning out for the excitement. Interest in the event appears to have waned perceptibly, for this entertaining event five or six years ago drew some 50 or 60 men from Sacramento, San Francisco and Reno for the competition. At least 10 Reno contestants were kept at home by the opening of the Nevada Open Championship meet which started on Saturday but this fails to excuse those two veteran golfers, Major A. P. Crist and Henry Droste who failed to put in even an appearance.

Nine qualifying rounds were played in the morning, handicaps being figured from these results, with 18 holes being played in the afternoon following luncheon at Tahoe Inn.

A "blind bogey" drawing was featured this year, due to the small crowd, players in the finals who landen in blocks between the numbers 65 and 75 drawing first. Lowest numbers were drawn by Ray Husk, highway timekeeper of Truckee who took first prize of $4, Bob Tonini of Truckee taking second and the remaining $2 of the purse. Others who participated in the silent 'battle of the niblicks' were W. A. Totman of Reno, Ed Martinez, Douglas Smith, Jack Starratt Anderson, Carl Bechdolt and Billie Bechdolt and Stanley Martin, all of Tahoe, Elden Tonini, Bill Kirkman and Frank Gaiennie of Truckee.

Tahoe City, Sept. 16—Announcement is made here this week by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd B. Carnell that they have renovated and reopened Marshall's Inn, popular resort and dining room situated on the main highway from Truckee near the Tahoe ski hill crossing. They are prepared to serve tastily prepared meals at a moderate price in a clean, attractive, homelike atmosphere. The Carnells and their two sons are no strangers at Tahoe having lived for 7 years at Meek's Bay where they have many friends. Their pastries and cakes are homemade and may be ordered in advance by phone for special occasions and dinner parties.

THREE TAHOE BEARS JUMP FROM DUMP TO DUMP FOR FOOD

Brockway, Sept. 16—From Brockway comes a tale of three bears who are very much "down in the dumps". In fact they have spent all of their summer vacation making their way from the Brockway dumps to the savory Tahoe dumping grounds where choice morsels are found among the town's refuse. The trio consists of a mother bear and her two cubs whose den was discovered recently when a dead coyote was found near the entrance in the vicinity of Brockway. Two Brockway men were desisted from shooting the animals when Constable Johanson informed them that the season on bears was closed. While neighbors still threatened to shoot the trio, no report of any damage they might have done has come to light.

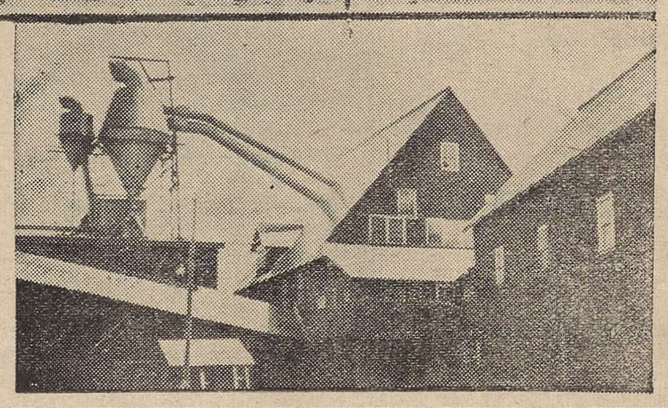
Silence Encompasses Once Busy Scene



Destined to become one of California's ghost towns, Hobart Mills, recently one of the most thriving, industrious lumber mills in the state, is nearly deserted. Only a skeleton crew, retained by the Hobart Estate Company to complete closing up of the once famous mill, remains. The above pictures tell the story of desertion. The top depicts the principal street, once the scene of great activities; the center is a picture of the deserted residential section where many of the recent residents were born and raised. The bottom pictures the mill and the box factory, now standing idle as speculators look over the machinery for salvage.

BOOK REVIEW TO BE FEATURED AT TAHOE'S LIBRARY

Tahoe City, Sept. 16—Mrs. Bliss Hinkle this week issued an invitation to any and all literary minded Tahoe residents to attend the first book review scheduled for Tuesday evening Sept. 21, at 7:30 P. M. in the local school auditorium. Statistics to date have proven conculsively that the elders as well as the youngsters of Tahoe are showing keenest interest in their newly acquired library. Data for August and September shows that 118 books were rented out during the seven days the library was open in August and 100 books are already out during the five open days in September. Starting out with 11 books, shelves now hold a total of 155 the original number having been augmented by donations and accessions from the county library. Mrs. Faye K. Russel, County Librarian for Placer Co. was on hand to help in installing the local branch at Tahoe. Drastic budget reductions by the supervisors for the ensuing months have made it necessary to shorten the hours here the new schedule announced by Mrs. Ann Anderson, local librarian, being from 2 till 4 every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. It is expected the library service will be available to Tahoeites all through the winter months according to present plans. All donations of books are greatly appreciated, more than 40 being received from Mrs. M. C. Milton this week. Others who have contributed include Mrs. John Metcalf, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Mrs. Frank Frost and others. The books have in most cases been actually given to the Tahoe Women's Club, which in turn has donated them for use in the local library.

To Carson—

The Golden Text will be: "Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourself molten gods: I am the Lord your God" (Lev. 19.4).

There's really no good excuse for not going to Church. If you are not good enough now, maybe it would help you. If you are too good to need it, then the Church surely needs your help.

DELAY INCURRED IN FIXING SALARIES OF STATE EMPLOYES

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16,—(UP)—State employes whose total payroll exceeds $30,000,000 annually, must wait until next month for a personnel board decision on proposed salary revisions.

William Brownrigg, executive officer of the board, recently completed a survey showing many state wage earners were paid more than the prevailing scale for similiar work in private industry, but also revealing some workers' pay was less than private rates.

Brownrigg said it was his opinion the board should lay down a policy as to whether state employes should receive higher salaries than those paid in private industry, or whether state wages should be lower because of stability in positions and retirement privileges.

GAS TAX MEETING BEING HELD AT BAY

SACRAMENTO, SEPT. 16,—(UP)—The state board of equalization announced completion of final plans for the annual convention of the North American Gas Tax Conference, to be held in San Francisco September 13-16 inclusive.

Convention headquarters for the meeting which will bring together delegates from approximately 30 states to have been established at the Palace Hotel.

The convention will include business sessions attended by state tax officials and oil company representatives. Entertainment features a tour of the Monterey peninsula and Sonoma and Napa county wineries.

PLANS PROGRESSING FOR PLACER'S FAIR

J. M. Lloyd, Auburn certified public accountant, has been employed by the general fair committee of the Placer county fair, a horse show and rodeo as official auditor, it was announced this week, bw H. A. Linthicum, chairman. Lloyd, already on the job, will be retained on the payroll until after the fair, October 8, 9, and 10, and will file a formal accounting of the finances with the board of supervisors and the state department of finance, in order to gualify the Roseville exposition for participation in state racing funds.

The Placer county fair will distribute more than $10,000 in prizes including awards for mineral exhibits and purses for the horse show.

HERE'S NEW NAME FOR NEGRO CULPRIT

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 16,—(UP)—The judicial calm of Police Judge W. E. Landon suffered a severe shock recently when a 6 foot 1⅛ inch negro appearing before him answered the query as to his name with, "Love and Kisses Love."

The negro explained Love was his surname and Love and Kisses his given name. "My mammy give me that name because I am mammy's baby," he said.

MORE 1936 BABIES BORN IN HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT REPORTS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16,—(UP)—Most 1936 California babies were born in hospitals, a survey by the state department of health disclosed.

Of the 84,460 live births last year, 63,366 occurred in licensed maternity homes and hospitals, records showed. This figure represented almost 75 per cent of the total.

The department reported 201 maternal deaths in institutions during 1936 as compared with 209 such deaths in 1935, when 55,443 institutional births were recorded.

A decrease was noted in the number of infant deaths. During 1936 1444 infants died in institutions, compared with 1593 deaths in 1935.

BANK OF AMERICA GETS AD AWARDS

The award was based largely upon the newspaper advertising campaign in approximately 400 California newspapers.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC EXECUTIVE DONATES SUM TO HOSPITAL

With a gift of $50,000 from Edward S. Harkness, director and member of the executive committee of Southern Pacific Company, added to an apropriation of $100,000 by the company itself, substantial improvements will be made in Southern Pacific's hospital department by the purchase of additional equipment.

Announcement of plans for increasing the usefulness of the company's hospital facilities was made today by Dr. W. B. Coffey, chief surgeon, following acknowledgement of the Harkness gift by the railroad's executive committee.

NURSE SERVICE IS ADDED TO RAILROAD

Learning the business of railroading was the big job confronting 10 attractive San Francisco bay district girls today, following their selection for stewardess-nurse service on the Overland limited.

They will start their railroad careers September 15 when the Overland becomes an all-Pullman train, coincident with establishment of the "San Francisco Challenger", new coach and tourist train, on the San Francisco-Chicago run.

INITIATIVE MEASURES WOULD SAVE TAX ON OCCUPIED HOMES

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16,—(UP)—Petitions to qualify an initiative measure eliminating property taxes on occupied homes up to $3,500 of assessed value are in circulation.

The movement is sponsored by the Home Owners Tax Exemption Association of Los Angeles. Fred Dyster, vice-president, predicted enough signatures would be obtained to place the proposal on the 1938 ballot.

Under the association's plan the idea would work as follows:

Figuring assessed valuation at about 40 per cent of the true value, a home with a market value of $8,500 would be assessed at about $3,500 or less, which would place the property under the proposed exemption limit and eliminate payment of taxes on it.

DECIDE CHANGES IN DRIVERS' LICENSES

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 16,—(UP)—A decided increase in new applications for driver's licenses was reported for July by the state department of motor vehicles.

More than 23,000 original licenses were issued by the department during that month, Paul Mason, chief of the license division, reported to Gov. Frank F. Merriam.

Jenny Lind's Grave

once, but it won't work again," he replied.

One seeming indisputable manifestation that he will be back in 1938 is the manner in which he is handling patronage.

The governor has scores of appointments to make. He's had many of them for months and appears no nearer to announcing his decision now than he was long ago. Observers believe he is surveying the field, organizing his campaign drive, and the appointments will begin coming at a rapid clip when he knows exactly where he's going.

Until then there is little liklihood there will be a noticible change of policy.

There will be little question that the governor will have to know where he's going. All indications point to a very strenuous campaign ahead, in which the Republican party will need every vote it can muster to retain the administrative control it has held for years.

Democratic leaders hold a strong registration majority and they're confident the voters will mark a straight party ticket if circumstances are right.

One prominent Democrat who visited Sacramento from the south a day or two ago said the only problem appears to be agreement on satisfactory Democratic nominee in the August primary.

The Bourbons are anticipating another "scare" campaign from the opposition if State Senator Culbert L. Olson, Los Angeles liberal, is nominated. This would mean defeat of the party as it did in 1934 when Upton Sinclair was the standard-bearer, many believe.

Highlight of political developments outside the gubernatorial contest was beginning to move to place former State Controller Ray L. Riley, now a state railroad commissioner, in the U. S. Senatorial race against William Gibbs McAdoo.

George H. Payne, boxing commissioner and publisher of the San Jose News, started the ball rolling in an editorial pointing out Riley's length of state service and averring he could be elected as evidenced by the huge vote he amassed for the controller's job in 1934.

Riley answered that if "those who have California's best interests at heart believe I would make an acceptable candidate, I would of course accept the office."

Olson, Congressman John F. Dockweiler and former Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy of San Francisco already have pitched their hats in the gubernatorial ring. Supervisor Herbert C. Legg of Los Angeles county is lining up a campaign and former U. S. Attorney Pierson Hall and Comptroller of the Currency J. F. T. O'Conenr both are potential candidates, while Congressman Frank Buck is said to be eyeing the job.

With a majority of the vote lying in Los Angeles county, Olson must be regarded as the strongest of the three major candidates thus far in the field. Observers believe many of the potential candidates will haul down their balloons by next August, leaving Olson, a strong dark horse, such as Legg or a conservative of his type..and scattering of also rans in the field.
